

ASSOCIATIONS INCORPORATION ACT 1981

Section 5(b)

LUN
1404664

STATEMENT OF PURPOSES

1. The name of the proposed incorporated association is RESIDENTS 3000 Incorporated.

2. The purposes for which the proposed incorporated association is established are:—

7. Aims of the Association:

The meeting spent some time discussing what the aims of our group should be. Also included were the aims put forward at the first meeting of Tuesday 16th March, 1993. The suggested aims for the group are:

- To represent and protect the interests of the residents of the City of Melbourne.
- To actively foster and promote the 'living in the city' lifestyle
- To provide a focus for City Residents in order to promote a sense of community
- To represent City Residents to regulatory authorities
- To provide an arena for raising and solving residents legitimate concerns and frustrations.
- To provide an organisation through which information can be disseminated on topics such as support services in the City, events and happenings in the City and major changes and plans for the City.
- To provide a strong, recognised lobby group through which the various authorities and agencies can be contacted on issues concerning residents.
- To promote the positive aspects of City living including the mixed use of the space and to protect the intrinsic nature of city life.
- To encourage Council and developers to maintain and develop all types of City residential buildings including low rent residential developments and areas.
- To encourage services that cater for the needs of City residents.
- To provide an organisation through which City residents may communicate with each other.
- To organise social activities and functions
- To promote a support network amongst City residents.
- To liaise with other special interest & commercial groups to improve city living

ACTION: These aims were read out by the minute taker. A motion was put by Councillor Jabara that these aims be accepted. Seconded by Geoffrey Cleaver. It was asked if these aims could be amended at any time in the future and it was agreed that they could be amended by being brought before a meeting and voted on at that meeting. A vote was taken. All in favour.

Note: The purposes should be set out in paragraphs which are designated by letters in alphabetical order or are numbered consecutively.
